Functional Beauty Specialist Certification Program

What is the Functional Beauty Specialist Certification program?

The Functional Beauty Specialist Certification is an online program through the accredited, Alchemy University School of Natural Health. The coursework is a deep dive into naturopath, herbalism, skin health, and more. It is a comprehensive program that will take you from the basic understanding of what functional beauty is and why it is important to understand at its core to why our health has been declining over the years. Gaining insight into the differences between herbal and chemical and looking at the body systems will allow you to better help your clients with their skin care and nutritional decision making.

Who can enroll in this certification program?

Anyone interesting in learning more about functional beauty and becoming certified in this fast growing field of study is welcome to enroll.

How long does it take to complete the certification?

The program starts on December 4 and is self paced so you can work on it as you have time.

What will I learn in this program?

The Functional Beauty Specialist Certification program will be comprised of 7 modules:

Module 1: Functional Beauty

Module 2: Naturopathy 101

Module 3: What Happened to Our Health

Module 4: Toxins

Module 5: Begin with Skin
